Make a Difference for Tomorrow

Ah yes, spring is in the air. Temperatures are warming up. The trees and flowers are ready to bloom. This spring has something very special going on, though. It's different. It's the scent of optimism and, boy, what a sweet, wonderful smell it is. After a year of some pretty tough stuff, things are starting to look and feel much, much better. What helped most people make it through was that we had each other. While most of our Back to School Illinois events got canceled last year, we're looking to make up for it in 2021. We're already planning to hold dozens of Build-A-Kit programs, and host our "BIG" Distribution & Activity Day and annual Gala, and that's just the start of things.

While we're optimistic we will make all these events, and more, happen, the point of it all is to make certain we continue to put pencils, notebooks, rulers, crayons, and so much more into the hands of needy children. So please, join us in making sure that this year we provide as many children as possible with the tools they need to succeed. Let's work to make sure kids have what they need to get the job done. We've lost ground. The pandemic may have set education back but that doesn't mean we can't turn things around. Let's pull together once again. Yes, together we can.
